Stocks were feverish and unsettled in Wat street to-day. There was no great pressure to sell, but, on the other hand, there was no subtaining power, and the market dropped of it own weight.

London was a seller and the first quotation received from that centre were 1, to 1 per cent, below our final prices of yesterday. Then the experis of gold are large, and this has a tendency to irighten off buyers. A million and a half dollars went out by to-day's steamshirs, and $1,250,000 has been engaged by Lazard Freres and Kuhn, Loob & Co. for shipment by the Normannia to-morrow.

The apprenension that the financial troubles abroad will extend, also has a depressing effect upon prices and makes operators cautions. upon prices and makes operators cautions.

LONG HEADS CAUGHT TRISTAN

Tenny Won't Go to Buffalo---General Track Gossip.

"The King is dead-long live the King! eried the crowd at Morris Park yesterday. when the great sway-backed colt Tenny met defeat at the flying heels of Tristan, the great son of Giencig. Though Tenny was beaten, however, he was not disgraced, for no home ever ran a grander race than this same misshapen son of kayon d'Or and Helle of May-wood. He carried a croshing weight, giving away pounds upon pounds to other good, game and speedy animals, such as Tristan, Clarendon, Senorita, Riley, Ambulance and the speedy but cowardly Tournament, and yet was only beaten a scant half length, in time that smashed the record to smithereens. The nfteen thousand people present were in great good luck, for they were fortunate to see in this one of the greatest races ever run in this country. Tristan has improved wonderfully. scored.
